

Question of the Week

May 4

The Question of the Week is an opportunity to connect God's Word with our lives. Take time with your small group or family to read and reflect upon the Sunday Gospel and share about your life.

SCRIPTURE

Choose someone to read the full Scripture reading or the portion below. If possible, have a printed or electronic copy for each person participating.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter,
""Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?""
Simon Peter answered him, ""Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.""
Jesus said to him, ""Feed my lambs.""
He then said to Simon Peter a second time,
""Simon, son of John, do you love me?""
Simon Peter answered him, ""Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.""
Jesus said to him, ""Tend my sheep.""
Jesus said to him the third time,
""Simon, son of John, do you love me?""
Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time,
""Do you love me?"" and he said to him,
""Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.""
Jesus said to him, ""Feed my sheep.

Gospel Reading, John 21:1-19

QUESTION

After leader poses the question, each person should allow several seconds to pass before they answer. If you are in a large group, split up into partners. Teens choose which question they prefer.

Adults

When was a time when someone didn't give up on you even if you had given up on yourself?

Children

Who is your biggest fan?

PRAYER

After everyone has had the opportunity to answer, the leader invites everyone to close with this prayer or another of their choice.

Loving Jesus, Redeemer of the world,
we are yours, and yours we wish to be.
To bind ourselves to you even more closely
we offer you this time of prayer and reflection.
May it bear fruit in our lives
so that all can clearly see that you are the King of our hearts.
Amen.
