

Question of the Week

August 10

The Question of the Week is an opportunity to connect God's Word with our lives. Take time with your small group or family to read and reflect upon the Sunday Gospel and share about your life.

SCRIPTURE

Choose someone to read the full Scripture reading or the portion below. If possible, have a printed or electronic copy for each person participating.

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.

Blessed are those servants

whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.

Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have the servants recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.

And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way,

blessed are those servants.

Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour

when the thief was coming,

he would not have let his house be broken into.

You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect,

the Son of Man will come."

Gospel Reading, Luke 12:35-40

QUESTION

After leader poses the question, each person should allow several seconds to pass before they answer. If you are in a large group, split up into partners. Teens choose which question they prefer.

Adults

How can you plan and prepare this week to be the best version of yourself?

Children

What can you do to be the best you can be?

PRAYER

After everyone has had the opportunity to answer, the leader invites everyone to close with this prayer or another of their choice.

Loving Jesus, Redeemer of the world,
we are yours, and yours we wish to be.

To bind ourselves to you even more closely
we offer you this time of prayer and reflection.

May it bear fruit in our lives

so that all can clearly see that you are the King of our hearts.

Amen.
